

sharc vision:

We envision a world where all people affected by the impact of addiction can proudly and openly seek help, help each other and demonstrate the living proof that recovery is possible.

sharc mission:

To provide opportunities for individuals, families and communities affected by addiction and related problems to recover and achieve meaningful, satisfying and contributing lives.

To provide models of practice for family support, consumer participation and peer based recovery support and influence practice in the field of addiction and other related health domains.

sharc values:

PEOPLE: People who have the courage to ask for help have our respect and admiration

INSIGHT: We believe that people are the experts in their own life

SELF HELP: We believe in Self Help as mutual healing, passing on the knowledge and skills acquired, as we give and receive help

RECOVERY: We believe in Recovery – the individual taking ownership of a meaningful and purpose filled life

LEADERSHIP: We believe in Leadership that is born from direct experience and has the spirit to inspire and advance the wellbeing of all

COMMUNITY: We believe in Community that includes all members as equal and necessary participants

ADVOCACY: We believe in Advocacy as a means offered to people to take an essential and active role in a democratic community
